

MONTREAL FAMILIES / JUNE 2012 / SONGWRITING COMPETITION FOR TEENS

SHARE | EMAIL | PRINT

Songwriting competition for teens

BY JENNIFER BRAUN

Emma Huebner was one of last year's contestants

Teens with a passion for singing and songwriting can perform for an audience at the second annual Teen Songwriting Competition on June 23.

Sponsored by Acoustic Nights Montreal, a local organization promoting local singer-songwriters and artists, the bilingual competition is open to teens ages 13 to 17, who will participate in a workshop on June 9 to help them hone their writing and performing skills. Then, on June 23, the top 10 contestants from that workshop will play for a panel of judges with a chance to win prizes including 12 hours in a professional recording studio, free music lessons and the opportunity to open for a band at the Acoustic Nights Montreal gala in September.

Registration costs $20 and is open until June 1. Contestants will have to send in a Youtube video of their song, a copy of their lyrics and a photo.

For more information and to register, visit www.acousticnightsmontreal.com/competition.

This article appears in the June 2012 issue of Montreal Families
Did you like what you read here? Subscribe to Montreal Families »

Add your comment:

Log In Create an account

Create an instant account, or please log in if you have an account.

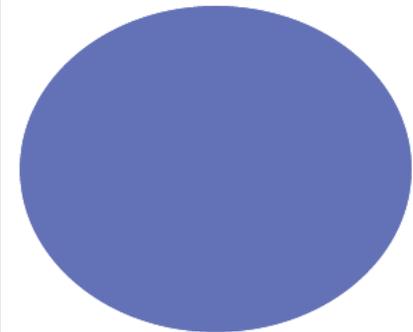

Email address (not displayed publicly)

Password

Forgot your password?

2000

Characters remaining

Related Articles

Dance & music show

Ormstown family fair in June

La Fete des enfants cancelled for 2012

Do friendships change after childbirth?

Talking to girls about menstruation

Climate change explained to kids

Family event honours dads

New "dry" rides at Sauveur Water Park

Forging a strong parent/teacher bond

