If you are between 13 and 17 years-old, you would have until June 1st to enter the competition by filling out the online application available on the website and provide a YouTube video of you performing your song, video quality not being a factor. A selected Top 10 will compete On Sat June 23rd, 2012 in front of a live audience and a panel of judges by performing their song as a soloist or as a duo. The grand prize includes a chance to open for major artists backed by a full band of professional musicians and other prizes include a recording session in a professional studio, music lessons and much more! The first place winner and the runners-up will also get to perform with a full band at the Acoustic Nights Montreal Gala 2012 Sun Sep 30 at La Sala Rossa. Spread the word, invite your little brothers, sisters and singing cousins and neighbors -if talent is hiding in, now is a wonderful opportunity to get it out.
